

Everything Falls Away

Gretchen Peters

wasn't a cloud in the sky when the news arrived just another bluebird day just a voice on the phone saying I'm sorry everything falls away
so i went down to the sea to look for you found the moon and the Milky Way watched the tide take back what it gave to me everything falls away
i live in the fear that my heart will break i look for the thing that'll cure the ache just one thing that the world can't take away i want to dive beneath the undertow down to the bones of the earth below i want to know, i want to know - where did you go I saw you so clear in a dream last night diving from the cliffs at Echo Bay the arc and the pause and the slow descent everything falls away
