

Trendsetter

a dream too late

You're rollin' up in your Mercedes Benz
Full of your fake friends
They're laughin' like they love you You walk around just like you L.A.
With all your make up
Boys aren't supposed to wear that stuff Do you think there could be Somethin' fortune can't buy?
Do you think love has Somethin' to do with it? Trendsetter, you dance alone to your heartbeat
Trendsetter, trend-trendsetter
Trendsetter, show me what I wanna be
Trendsetter, trendsetter You can't afford enough attention
To stay at number one
So just charge it to mom's credit card Gettin' groped by all the freshman
But they can't touch you when They find there's nothin' left inside Do you think they will Stay by your side?
Do you think there's somethin'
More to life than lies? Trendsetter, you dance alone to your heartbeat
Trendsetter, trend-trendsetter
Trendsetter, show me what I wanna be
Trendsetter, trendsetter Trendsetter, trendsetter
Trendsetter, trendsetter
Trendsetter, you dance alone to your heartbeat
Trendsetter, trendsetter Trendsetter, take a look at yourself
All that's left is a ghost when you're somebody else
Trendsetter, show me what I wanna be
Trendsetter, trendsetter Trendsetter
Take a look at yourself all that's left is a ghost
