Wake Up

Framing Hanley

You turn it around
There's something safe in the way that you say
That you don't like the sound of that again
I could be wrong
But there's a chance this little dance
It won't last too long again
All you are is all I need
Call me when you wake up
And I will be the one to bring you home again
I'll bring you home again
And I always tried to see the best in you
Though I see the other side
I see the other side
I watched you fall
And now I'm afraid that there's just no time left at all
We're both runaways, we made some big mistakes
And I just wanna fix this, wanna fix this now
Well, can we fix this now?
All you are is all I need
And all you want is all you'll be
Call me when you wake up
And I will be the one to bring you home again
I'll bring you home again
And I always tried to see the best in you
Though I see the other side
I see the other side
This isn't what you said I'd become
When I left everything where it was
But I'm still hanging on to believe
That you're gonna change
You're gonna change your ways
Can you change your ways?
Before it's too late I wanna forgive you
Before it's too late I wanna forgive you
Before it's too late I wanna forgive you
What if it gets too late?
Call me when you wake up
And I will be the one to bring you home again
I'll bring you home again

And I always tried to see the best in you
Though I see the other side
I tried, I tried and I tried
Though I see the other side
