

The Life of the Party

Alana Dante

All you gotta do is dance, dance, dance
All you gotta do is clap your hands, hands, hands
You'll be the life of the party, yes, you will, now
Life of the party, yes, you canHey, miss corner sitter, never left your seat
Until some dancing heart-getter charms you to your feet, yeah
Now, you got the movement, and soon you'll be doin' it
So get with it, baby, get with itYou'll be the life of the party, you can be, you can be Life of the party, you can be, you can be Dance, you can dance
(Yes, you can)You're a sexy momma, such a dancing dream
You're no longer sittin', your train's puffin' steam
The guys are lined up, they're hoping to wind up
With you now, can't you see it?You'll be the life of the party, you can be, you can be Life of the party, you can be, you can beThere will be dancin', prancin' with a little romancin'
All you gotta do is dance, dance, dance
All you gotta do is clap your hands, hands, handsYou can boogie, you can boogie, you can boogie, you can boogie
You can move, move, move
You can boogie, you can boogie, you can boogie, you can boogie
