Inside the Storm

Gaia Epicus

[words & music by Thomas C. Hansen]Hear the thunder, see the lightning
Feel the rain comes poring down
Hear my heart beat, see my anger
Feel the force that strikes you downYou've betrayed me, for the last time
Now you must pay for your sins
Kneel before me, say you're sorry
Close your eyes and feel the painI am trapped againInside the storm
We can fly away to the unknown
If you're cold, ill keep you warm
You are safe inside the stormSee the moonlight, hear the voices
You can hear them calling you
Cannot answer, life is fading
There is nothing you can doSomeone's crying, someone's trying
To keep the life in you
Now you're sorry, but it's too late
This is the end for youYou are safe inside
You will join the ride
You are safe inside the storm
