Two More Minutes

Jaymes Young

I don't want nobody
You lift me upTwo more minutes
And I'll be there
Filling my empty head
With pictures of you bareA breath to take home with me
Take your oxygen
Slowly while you breathe
And all the days in between
You're still my drug of choice
The figure of my dreamsAnd though we wait for now
Even through the noise
I feel you somehowI don't want nobody else
You lift me off of the ground
I want you all to myself
Please don't ever let me downTwo more minutes
And I won't care
That I broke my back today
Where all my people stare'Cause once I get you in my arms
The ice will start to break
The day will fade awayI don't want nobody else
You lift me off of the ground
I want you all to myself
Please don't ever let me downAnd all the days in between
You're still my drug of choice
The figure of my dreamsI don't want nobody else
You lift me off of the ground
I want you all to myself
Please don't ever let me downI don't want nobody else
You lift me off of the ground
I want you all to myself
Please don't ever let me down
