Come to Jesus

Point of Grace

This is for the weary and the weak
This is for the desperate and ashamed
This is for the hopeless hiding in the shadows
Cupping hands around a flicker of faithThis is for the ones who don't belong
This is for the silent castaways
This is for the sinner peeking through the stained glass
From a sidewalk in the cold, driving rainWe all fall down, we all need saving
Once in a while, you are not alone
We all lose faith and lean on mercy
But through our darkest night, He said He'd wait for us
Just come to JesusFor anyone who's given up on God
For those who've tripped and fallen out of grace
For anyone who's looking to the bottom of a bottle
For the strength to make it through another dayWe all fall down, we all need saving
Once in a while, you are not alone
We all lose faith and lean on mercy
But through our darkest night, He said He'd wait for us
Just come to Jesus, come to JesusHe did not come to raise the living
Or touch the eyes of those who seeIt was for the bitter and burned out
It was for the unforgivable
It was for the failure standing on the bridge
Because the guilt's too high a price to pay to liveWe all fall down, we all need saving
Once in a while, you are not alone
We all lose faith and lean on mercy
But through our darkest night, He said He'd wait for us
Come to Jesus, come to Jesus
