Bones (Acoustic)

Young Guns

Down under the night sky
Ill lay in wait
Praying to whoever
Will listen to me
Ive fashioned my own cross
Been crushed by its weight
Theres no stronger message
Than turning your face
(Chorus)
Ive seen down the end of the road
I deal with a different story
Oh, I will never let go again
I feel it in my bones
Bones, bones, bones
I feel it in my bones,
Bones, bones, bones
Ill do this on my own
Oh, oh, oh, oh,
Bones, bones,
Oh, oh, oh, oh
They say the spirits willing
But the flesh is always weak,
I found everything I needed
Right beneath my skin, oh
(Chorus)
Ive seen down the end of the road
I deal with a different story
Oh, I will never let go again
I feel it in my bones
Bones, bones, bones
I feel it in my bones,
Bones, bones, bones
Ill do this on my own
(Guitar solo)
Were all architects of our own private hell
No one can hurt us
like we hurt ourselves, oh
(Chorus)
Ive seen down the end of the road

I deal with a different story
Oh, I will never let go again
I feel it in my bones
Bones, bones, bones
I feel it in my bones,
Bones, bones, bones
I know Im not alone
Alone, bones, bones
Lone, lone, bones
