

Won't Laugh

Aer

I won't laugh if you smile, fabricated tales tend to take a while.

I won't laugh if you smile, to each is own that's my way yeah.

I got tattoos, so people think I'm cool

Oh college, I'm better than school

And I smoke pot, it's the only thing I do

And you wonder why, I wouldn't trade my life with you

Cause you hang the same keys from the same hook every afternoon

My angels lookin down upon me from a great view

They've got my back but they hate you

This all seems so crazy, I swear I never imagined this

Remember hittin bank in the 94' protÃ©ogÃ©, didn't think it'd happen as fast as this

That was then and this is now, it's a different time and a different sound

Saying new things from the same mouth, still a cotch kid in my hometown yeah

From a thought to a hobby you a full time career

74 floor of Shanhais when it all came so clear

In the hills of the valley

And we're so far from the finale

And I want this so badly

No I won't let go, no I wont let go

I won't laugh if you smile, fabricated tales tend to take a while.

I won't laugh if you smile, to each is own that's my way yeah.

I won't laugh if you smile, fabricated tales tend to take a while.

I won't laugh if you smile, to each is own that's my way yeah.

That's me, I want you to know me

I grew up in the east, on a quiet street

But I'm bout to move out and sign a new lease

Expecation bills and rent, its all almost a bit too much

But it's money well spent 100% I'm someone to trust

And I wanna apologize to my old friend for hookin up with his girlfriend

And I don't wanna get denied from the club for the color of my boy's skin

But now it's tours go on wake me up interviews, come on wake me up

And I hate when ya expect me to pay ya

I got friends that seem to hate me now

I guess that's the truth of the matter

Should be hard to look down cause you're climbin the ladder

And I know that we are a difference in the pattern

But all this fake talk got me far from flattered so

Yeah, run along run along

I don't wanna see your face here, don't call it your home

Ha, ha run along run along you'll suck em all dry
Run along run along cuz we don't want no more
I won't laugh if you smile, fabricated tales tend to take a while.
I won't laugh if you smile, to each is own that's my way yeah.
I won't laugh if you smile, fabricated tales tend to take a while.
I won't laugh if you smile, to each is own that's my way yeah.
Would ya be so kind, be so kind, be so kind just say it x4
