

Nobody's Fool

Brad Paisley

Had the time of my life
Before I could see
What was really going on
And what you really thought of me
Look at me now, eyes open wide
Wiser today and driving away with my shattered pride
Now I'm nobody's fool
It ain't no fun anymore
'Cause now that I'm nobody's fool
I'd rather be yours
Well you know what they say
The truth sets you free
And that's just great unless you don't wanna be
And you can keep the last laugh
'Cause I don't like how it feels
When you save face, but your heart breaks
Well you've cut the wrong deal
Now I'm nobody's fool
I miss the way it was before
Don't wanna be nobody's fool
I wanna be your, your, yours
'Cause I'm a fool anyway
Whether I leave or stay
So why, why did I have to run?
I wanna make you laugh
I wanna make you smile
I wanna feel like I belong to someone
Now I'm nobody's fool
It ain't no fun anymore
Don't wanna be nobody's fool
I wanna be yours, yours
Don't wanna be nobody's fool
I wanna be yours
