Timekeeper

Lucy Schwartz

When the timekeeper comes
Do you know what you bargained for
Would you do it again
Live the life that you lost before

Did the judge raise his hand
Send you back to the promise land
Were you counted your change
They took it all for the life exchanged

Leave your sorrows in your past home (go)
Live your second life with new hope (go)
I will see you when your light turns red
When your light turns red

Painted into new skin
Watch the particles settle in
See the girl by the door
A funny feeling youâ€™ve met before

Leave your sorrows in your past home (go)
Live your second life with new hope (go)
I will see you when your light turns red
When your light turns

Have you forgotten all that you are
Fates and fables all written in stone
Have you forgotten all that you are
Fates and fables all written in stone

Leave your sorrows in your past home (go)
Live your second life with new hope (go)
I will see you when your light turns red
When your light turns red

Lyrics submitted by Cassie Medcalf.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/