

Hustlaz Ambition (prod. by Drumma Boy)

Young Jeezy

Everybody wanna be like me?

Y'all can be like me?

Look at my watch

Look at my wrist

Nothin' like ya man he ain't shinin' like this

Nothin' like ya man he ain't grindin' like this

And even if he was, he ain't fuckin with cause I came so far from the bottom couldn't even see the top

Just as soon as a fill the trap I'm rippin' up every block

I'm a good god fearin' man with a criminal mind state

Ain't nobody gave a shit and that's why we grind weight

My grandma off in the church while I'm in the refrigerator

In search of the baking soda right next to the mashed potatoes

She prayin' for better days I'm prayin' they take this water

Realest and stun and ship put that day on my mothers daughter [Chorus]

My ambitions as a hustla (i wont deny it, I wont deny it)

My ambitions as a hustla (i wont deny it im a straight hustla, I wont deny it) [Repeat: x3] Its Mr. Trap or die yeah yall remember me

First album was a classic them critics weren't feelin' me

Now as far as award shows we all know how that goes

So whats all the doubt about because he ain't sellin' out

Because he ain't givin' up because he don't give a fuck

Because he ain't changin' up I guess he aint lean enough

And just know I'm savin' up let you play with my sanity

Gives a fuck what you think of me unless you feedin' my family

Mother fuck all my enemies one time for my mini me's

Listen to these niggas I bet you hear plenty me

I'm who they pretend to be the one they pretend to do

See me I'm a hustla I do what my hustlaz do [Chorus] Might not just be the best just know I plan to be

I refuse to let suckers win but thats just the man in me

Look it could be the G in me these niggas ain't seein' me

Unless they seein' me in traffic and somethin' topic and drastic

I say I grind like there 10 of me swear to god theres just one of me

Look I know I ain't there yet just know that I'm gonna be

I couldn't wait to see the day I could change where my momma stay

Put the b.s. behind me theres too much money in front of me [Chorus]
