TWILIGHT PAST SEPTEMBER
BY, KATHERINE GABRIEL,AKA,KATHAWREN

Oh how I remember,the twilight past September,you told me that you loved me,and I said "I do". Now your off be famous, to make yourself a name,and to find yourself another"dream come true" while I am here ,just hoping the best for you .

And like this ring, in circles. I'm hoping for some miracle, that soon your lies become the truth

Or am I ,just on a midnight cruise? Are you just a ship passing through.?

Now I'm no longer sadder,I find myself in madness, at what your heart has put me through.A place where you could lay down,and rest your undeserved crown,I guess ,no Knight in armour were you.

I guess you could say'I was no princess too."

But oh how I remember,the twilight past September,you told me that you lived me....and I said...'I do'.
