

Stranger

Versaemerge

It's so easy when you're fake believing
Untruly speaking, wrecking feelings
It's so easy sparking opposite ends
Fighting the good within, hiding my reasons

Stranger, I know so well

You got me tripping over myself

Can't trust in you

'Cause as I reach for your hand

I still sink into quicksand

Isn't my good side worth rescuing?

It's not easy admitting your demons

Tangled up in seasons

Finding lame reasons

(I can't fall asleep but I sure can dream)

Stranger, I know so well

You got me tripping over myself

Can't trust in you

'Cause as I reach for your hand

I still sink into quicksand

Isn't my good side worth rescuing?

I always flip myself into a shape I can't make

Thinking so hard about who we really are

You spark the good within

But I was never good at listening, listen until you're gone

Stranger, I know so well

Stranger, I know so well

You got me tripping over myself

Can't trust in you

'Cause as I reach for your hand

I still sink into quicksand

Isn't my good side worth rescuing?

Stranger, I know so well

Isn't my good side worth rescuing?
