SuperSmart

HEADSTONES

I know she's supersmart
Got her shit together
But she just falls apart
When the right people let herI'm constantly on guard
My best behavior
Befits anyone that's caught up
In trying to save that girlThat girl is supersmart
That girl is supersmart
That girl is supersmart
That girl is superThat girl is supersmart
That girl, she's supersmart
That girl, she's supersmart
That girl, she's super, yeahThe worm crawling up her spine
Waiting for someone else to decide
When it gets to the top
Well, it whispers in her earThat girl is supersmart
You know you're never gonna
Catch her off guard
She's inflexible and the points
She makes are perfectThat girl is supersmart
That girl is supersmart
That girl is supersmart
That girl is superThat girl, she's supersmart
That girl, she's supersmart
That girl, she's supersmart
That girl is superAnd she floats away
And she's rarely safe
And she floats away, yeahThat girl's without a fault
Sows it all together
She tries to do it all
When the right people let herThat girl, she's superstar
You know you're never gonna
Catch her off guard
She's inflexible and the points
She makes are perfectThat girl is supersmart
That girl is supersmart
That girl is supersmart
That girl is superThat girl, she's supersmart
That girl, she's supersmart

That girl, she's supersmart
That girl is superSuper, that girl, super
