Four Dreams (Undressed)

Jesca Hoop

Come and bring your stereo
Come and bring your stereo
And lay down on my pillow
Down into a dream we go
Down into a dream we go
Never know how we goUnder the shading of a willow tree
??? sleeping
the bed that we lay upon is chamomile
And it smells like bubble gum for real
Skunk and owl and doe
Gather 'round my radioThen ??? The earth
The skunk tried to crawl up on the cliff ahead
And from the crevasse a cuckoo clock emerged
And from it a little wooden bird
He spread apart its beak
And time began to speakI give to one two three Songs as old as meCome and bring your stereo
Come and bring your stereo
And lay down on a pillow
Down into a dream we go
Down into a dream we go
Never know how we goClimbing a statue ??? fifty feet
The cast of a woman that looks just like me
To find that my character was caught completely
Cemented from head down to my feet
A bee flew from my nose
He said come and bring your stereoDown to my throat it would seem like my teeth
The bee turned the stereo to bump a beat
And he began the buzzing in the key of B
Altruistic and ??? concrete
The mask fell from skin
Left me younger than I've ever beenI gift to one two three
???Hello, my sweet little Loretta
I love when you put the warm milk and honey in my bowl
Give, now don't you go and give
I'm gonna show you how to love my jelly rollOh how I love my johnny boy
And if you ever leave me baby I'll be destroyed
Let's make a baby, johnny boy
Right here in this little room

And we'll call it JuneCome and bring your stereo
Come and bring your stereo
And lay down on a pillow
Down into a dream we go
Down into a dream we go
Never know how we goOne summer reading at a block party
The juice from the ghetto blaster was fading
So we hijacked elliptical piracy
Because nobody had a battery
And the gods of rock 'n' roll
Hypnotized my stereoI gift to one two three AdRock MCA MikeDCome and bring your stereo
Come and bring your stereo
And lay down on a pillow
Down into a dream we go
Down into a dream we go

Never know how we goCome and bring your stereo
