

Poison Dream

Act of Defiance

Choice made to step on backs, to stop at nothing, until the spine cracks
Ground laid forsaking all, sneaking in the shadows, emerge, standing tall
 No thoughts of effect, the cause is always greed the rest you neglect
Say goodnight to the world, the problems you caused unravel unfurl
 To stop at nothing
 Fulfilling hope
 And those once thursting against the ropes
 To kill the empathy
 Devise your scheme
 You're burning anyone, for your poison dream
 Decimate!
 Escalate!
Your thoughts and goals would have everyone filled with hate
 Designate!
 Devastate!
 The sign of damage not seen until it's too late
The crime, when it's all said and done who's at fault?
 Your right like a victim condemned, an assault
 Your dark thoughts of victory, we are all scarred
Forgot, those so simple for you to discard
 To take and deceive
 An act of kindness, is more than you conceive
 Dry lake of emotion
 Sympathy for others is a foreign notion
 To stop at nothing
 Fulfilling hope
 And those once thursting against the ropes
 To kill the empathy
 Devise your scheme
 You're burning anyone, for your poison dream
 Relegate
 Delegate
Putting goals over other others, in extreme
 Desecrate
 Total hate
 A forewarning for the poison dream!
