Not Even a Maybe

Television Personalities

I'm a danger to myself
A bullet in the right place could change the world
And the time is right
But freedom only comes with liberty
And I'm prepared to fightThey think I'm drugged up
They think I'm hung up
And he's a dreamer
And he's a schemer
And you're too scared to join me
Not even a maybe
Not even a maybeI told you paradise is for the blessed
You could be halfway there
Freedom's yours you have to break the chains
Depends how much you careYou think I'm smacked up
You think I'm washed up
You think I'm foolish
You think I'm selfish
And you're too scared to join me
Not even a maybeYou think I'm drugged up
You think I'm hung up
And I'm a dreamer
And I'm a schemer
And you're too scared to join me
Not even a maybe
Not even a maybe
Not even a maybeA man can change the world with a bullet in the right place
Paradise is for the blessed not for the sex obsessed
Violence and revolution (...)
War is the last possible creative act
