Beautiful Day

Sara Haze

Saturday is the smile on Mona Lisaâ€™s face
A little spare change given to the stranger on the corner
A pile of leaves deep enough for my soul to jump into
And all my doubts fall away and lead me here to say

Itâ€™s a beautiful day, summer songs outside my window pane
And I donâ€™t need my umbrella â€˜cause Iâ€™ve already been through the rain
I can feel the sunshine on my face, not a cloud in my personal sky
Itâ€™s a beautiful day, Itâ€™s a beautiful day

Change the world, you know I would if I could
But all I have are my blue jeans and my black t-shirt
And thatâ€™s just fine, â€˜cause everyday you know I try
To make art not war, let love reign and lead the world to say

Itâ€™s a beautiful day, summer songs outside my window pane
And I donâ€™t need my umbrella â€˜cause Iâ€™ve already been through the rain
I can feel the sunshine on my face, not a cloud in my personal sky
Itâ€™s a beautiful day, Itâ€™s a beautiful day

The light will shine in my perfect sky,
The morning sun will be yours and mine

And Iâ€™ll hold my breath and pray
Itâ€™s a beautiful day, summer songs outside my window pane
And I donâ€™t need my umbrella â€˜cause Iâ€™ve already been through the rain
I can feel the sunshine on my face, not a cloud in my personal sky
Itâ€™s a beautiful day, Itâ€™s a beautiful day, Itâ€™s a beautiful day, Itâ€™s a beautiful day
