

Capt. Moody

The Black Halos

These tides are the best I've known
Never knowing, where they come
Where they go Drinking all the time
Never knowing, if I'm sick
Or if I'm feeling fine Sometimes they drag me down below
But even then, I never let it show Like a drunk at sea
Or a king without a home
Man overboard
Overthrown Yeah, girls, I've sailed a few
I've faced the toughest storms alive
And I pulled through Like pirates in modern times
Taking gold, booze and tattoos
And any friends, I find Sometimes I feel like Davey Jones
But even then I never get so low Like a drunk at sea
Or a king without a home
Man overboard
Overthrown Like a drunk at sea
I'm drifting on my own
Man overboard
Overthrown Like a drunk at sea
Or a king without a home
Man overboard
Overthrown Like a drunk at sea
I'm drifting on my own
Man overboard
Overthrown Like a drunk at sea
Or a king without a home
Man overboard
Overthrown
