Ghostfire

Tiger Army

Unseen to the eyes but a place in your heart
It scorches from inside just as it haunts
It is unknown to your lover intoxicated by spring
But when the feelings icy flame they'll know everythingIt lives where love has died, this ghostfire
Where poison flowers bloom
It sears from beyond sight
In the graveyard of promises
It burns right through the nightOnly a lover lost burns in ghostfire (Ghostfire)Lovers sprurned took their revenge, lie in cells tonight
Once consumed they turn to ash in its cold blue light
Those who can't take the pain
They extinguish the spark of life
For others it comforts, a companion in the nightIt lives where love has died, this ghostfire
Where poison flowers bloom
It sears from beyond sight
In the graveyard of promises
It burns right throught the nightOnly a lover lost burns in ghostfire
Only a lover lost burns in ghostfire
Only a lover lost burns in ghostfire (Ghostfire)
