

Rusted Nail

In Flames

You want someone to blame
The one who drives the rusted nail
But who's left will never care
Pretending becomes a chore
All you search for, a little piece of mind
Too far, too deep, the two faced smile
So lost, you feel, I knowWide awake but still asleep
Always a stranger in a crowd (sleep, sleep, sleep)
Wide awake, always a stranger in a crowd (wake, wake, wake)Just this once
Listen to the words I say
If you want I will
I'm there until the end of timeLeave the doomed behind
Search with different light
You were trying to remember
But it's all make believeYou are, you are, you areWide awake but still asleep (wide awake but still asleep)
Always a stranger in a crowdJust this once
Listen to the words I say
If you want I will
I'm there until the end of timeJust this once
Listen to the words I say
If you want, I'm thereJust this once
Listen to the words I say
If you want I will
I'm there until the end of time
