You Just Know

Bernard Butler

Do you believe in every breath I ever take?
Do you believe that I know every move I make?
You can't keep cryin' over chances I must take
Love I don't care if my feet are in the air
And there's one thing I will share you just know
(Oh)
Lover I don't care if my feet are in the air
And there's one thing I will share you just know
You just knowDo you know just how many hands I've had to shake?
Do you think I know every place I've ever played?
Well I know you worry but this is it I'm afraid
Lover I don't care if my feet are in the air
And there's one thing I will share you just know
(Ah)
Lover I don't care 'cos my hands are in the air
And there's one thing I will share you just know
You just know(Oh)
Lover I don't care if my feet are in the air
And there's one thing I will share you just know
(Oh)
Lover I don't care 'cos my hands are in the air
And there's one thing I will share you just know
You just know
(You just know)
You just know
(You just know)You just know
(You just know)
You just know
(You just know)
You just know
(You just know)
You just know
(You just know)
You just know
(You just know)
You just know
(You just know)
You just know
(You just know)

You just know
(You just know)
