

Professional Daydreamer

Over the Rhine

Part of me, you are a part of me
I never want to lose
Hard for me this is too hard
Maybe I can't get throughWhat I miss the most?
Pray that I'm haunted by your ghostListening you're always listening
I don't know what to say
Why don't you turn and run at break-neck speed
Just to get away?And when you catch your breath
Pray I said every word I meantAlright, it's alright now
Alright, it's alrightBroken down, we're all so broken down
Bandages on our wings
I know I don't have to tell you
Only broken hearts can singI'm hoping for a sign
Pray that I'm anything but fineAlright, it's alright now
Alright, it's alright
Alright, it's alrightSome things are never gonna change
You ought to know by now
You ought to know by nowAlright, it's alright now
Alright, it's alrightAlright, it's alright
Alright, it's alright
