

When Sounds Become Vital

Katie Kuffel

Stay there
For the moment
While I see you
Through these lesser eyes of mine

Louder
I can't hear you
Speak up please
It doesn't mean anything

Like photographs
Hollow laughs
Symphonies
Of running hands and clapping feet

Shout it
While it's clearer
Don't ruin it
For something easier

Reach out
For what it's worth
What's this about
You were here first

Listen
Hear me out please
You say that I don't know what you need
Do this while you still can
Before you become just like them

Stop it now before you're bound
By what you've said and what you'll say
For what you've done will never count
Since you became just another typical cliché
(Hey)

Stay there
For the moment
While I see you

Through these lesser eyes of mine
