

Everything

Chase Johanson

Springtime strollin' I go back to that moment when I saw that pretty look in her eyes
A hint of question that leaves in the direction that she took when she walked away from my life ahhaaa Warm wind kisses from sea, when she sits next to me and we drive down the lit up shore I had the feeling I get, the one that everyone gets, when their smile strikes down to the core oooooh ooo ohhhh haaaaahhhhh You don't know, what you mean to me

You are the reason for the changing of the leaves

When they fall, so do I, and it happens like a dream

You are my spring my fall my everything (guitar solo) VERSE

You don't know what you mean, I feel my heart in my knees, You make this feel like so much more I will never forget, the way our beady eyes met, that was something i couldn't ignore.
ahhaa springtime strollin, i go back to that moment when i saw that pretty look in her eyes
A hint of question that leaves in the direction that she took when she walked away from my life
ooooo h ooo ohhhh haaaaahhhhh You don't know, what you mean to me.

You are the reason for the changing of the leaves. When they fall, so do i, it happens like a dream, you are my spring my fall my everything
