Disbelief

touch this tender beautiful face feel her warmth within - within me what was the real reason to say good bye and leave my lifeI'll it try to walk alone
I'll it try
and all is goneden't follow the blind don't follow the blinda stranger in presence walked blind through this world
did not behold, what broke
to many fragments
walking all aloneI'll it try
to walk alone
I'll it try
to stay aloneden't follow the blind don't follow the blind
and you'll see
and you'll see . . .
