Sea of uruk
I taste the salt of you
I hunt through sands of Roba El KhaliyehDumuzi Apzu
Your allure is so very pure
Zi Dingir Anna Kanpa
You shall drown the fearless onesThe sword of Lapis Lazuli Diadem
Your fullness and strength is my delightEdin Na Zu, Edin Na ZuThe stars have spoken to me
They've told me the tale of your past Battles were clashed by you
Long before the cosmos existed
O' mountains of Mashu
Please help me to find the grey stone
I lost it, yet it's symbol unequals your raceI am in search of the Northern Nineveh;
it's beyond the hills of ZagrosI thrust my sword onto the veil, and then, in the Earth
Reversed lightning strikes Sumerian sands
They glance at me with eyes of Sunkun Varloorni
Their eyes flare red with glowing embers
Follow the path of gold and ye shall find the symbols:
Arra, Agga, and Bandar
In my sleeping village of Bet Durrabia, Shabatu forces the nineteenth hourYe go to thy Apzu; the unsightly abyss of Enidu Ye go to thy Apzu; the impious axis of EniduI have traveled beneth the seas in search of our master's palace
I have finally found the grey stone of the immemorial onesI have raised my armies in the lands of the eastern, summoning hordes
I have seen Ngga, God of Heathens, as my sword Diadem gleamsThe cosmos shall be greeted from the blood of thez serpent
A serpent well known as Tehom Mummu Tiamat
Man shall be greeted from the blood of Kingu
Thy queen of mashu will haunt the vision of your breedO' my queen, I feel your skin of white,
I touch your breasts of life, yet there's a battle I must fightZagros, Avagon, Ngga, ShabatuThy skin of white misses you Please don't leave me ever, nevermore

Unless you go, please take me with you
We'll ride onto wings of AnzuI heard the bellow of wolves behind the half-burnt waves
The tides of uruk swept your tongue across the salty floorWe have found the Apzu; our birthplace toward Avagon
We have found the Apzu; our meridian toward the darkMunus Sigsigga
