The Lost Lyrics

If it's not the heat tell me what else it could be
It brings up such a force in you
It brings up such emotion in me.All signs of life are moving slowly nowOnce there was a fortress Your skin became aflame.
And I burned down as a windowpane kept rattling my nameAll signs of life are moving slowly now
All signs of life are moving so slow
Even God's supposed to smile at the Earth belowLittle something to cool you off Little something to cool you offOnce there was a river
Far from the waterfall
Still dark and half asleep
YOu were the cannonball.All signs of life are moving slowly now
All signs of life are moving so slow
Even God's supposed to smile at the Earth
belowAll the signs of life are moving slowly now
All the signs of life are moving so slow
All signs of life are moving slowly now
All signs of life are moving so slow
All signs of life are moving slowly now
