Insecure

dimmer

It starts when I get close to you
I never know just what to do
So much I wanna say
But my nerves get in the way
An' I pray my fears ain't showin' through Insecure, it's strange when I feel it
Insecure, if I could feel I really had you for sure
I wouldn't be so insecure, yeah
I sit an' wonder what to do
Waitin' for my big time interview
As my palms start to sweat
'Bout this job I'm tryin' to get
Someone says, "Hey, Jett, it's time for you"
I bet they're right now
Insecure, everybody feels a little
Insecure, tell ya one thing I know for sure
We're all a little insecure
Insecure, everybody feels a little

Insecure, tell ya one thing I know for sure
We're all a little insecure
You shouldn't care what people think of you
All you can do is be yourself
No matter how they see you
You really can't be somethin' else
Let's make it, yeah
You're not the only one that feels this way
Inside they look the same as you
When it seems never ending
Remember they're pretendin' too
Insecure, natural to feel a little
Insecure, everybody gets it an' there ain't no cure
We're all a little insecure
Insecure, natural to feel a little
Insecure, everybody gets it an' there ain't no cure
We're all a little insecure
