Maggie

Cam Meekins

When I first set eyes on you First you beat me up Then you kissed me tooWe'd throw stones into the sea There were no others there Just you and meAcross the bridge And down the lane I knew I loved you then You said you did the sameOh Maggie What have you done? I should have seen it coming And to your side I'd runOh Maggie Come to me tonight I will wait up for you Make sure you're alright I miss youYou taught me how to sink or swim When I was scared that day You just pushed me inAnd when nobody was around You let me kiss you then And there the love I foundI said, I'd never let you go You just smiled at me How was I to knowOh Maggie What am I to do? How can I live with only memories of you? Oh Maggie Tell me the truth When your ship was sinking Did you think it through? I miss youYou were the fountain of my youth And when I fumbled You showed me what to doAnd when we were both 17 You left me standing there But you were never meanAnd when I saw you out with him He looked much older And you looked very thinI hadn't heard from you in years And then your mama called She couldn't speak for tearsShe said you left me a note Inside my pocket burns With these words you wroteHey, darlin' boy Don't you cry for me

I am forever yours

Now that I am freeWe'll be together
Throw stones into the sea
There'll be no others there
Just you and meI miss you
Maggie's goneI think you came the other night
You stroked my brow
Your eyes were full of lightIt may have only been a dream
When I will walk with you
To places I never have beenMaggie's gone
