

More Beautiful

Trevor Morgan

Airbrushed in magazines
Smiling on your TV screen
A world of vanity awaits you Don't believe what you read
Pay no mind to what you see
'Cause in the end it only breaks you Chorus:
You can't be more beautiful
No, you can't be more beautiful
You can't be more beautiful
Than you already are to me Somewhere behind those eyes
That's where the magic hides
And you've put a spell on me now You can light up a room
With no makeup and no perfume
Like daylight breaking through clouds Chorus: No, you can't be more beautiful
Than you already are to me
