Carnival In Spain

Magneta Lane

Kill the plaintiff's marching band
Has conjured up the devil's hand
The parade is now a masacre
Of fools and jugglers and constant lovers...Don't you believe in what you see Don't you believe in me he...He followed me,
he is the end of the world
Don't you know him by name?The defendant appeared a hunted witch Thrown by the oracle over a bridge Pride yourself in love you lost, pride is better
Don't get caught...Don't you believe in what you see
Don't you believe in me he...He followed me,
he is the end of the world
Don't you know him by name?
YeahBurn!
