I'll Be OK

Sal Houdini

Throw all your sorrows to me, and I'll make 'em go away
Throw all your problems on me, I'll be sure to find a way
Put on all your burdens on me, and I'll mash 'em all away
....., girl we'll always find a way
And even when it rains, I'll keep you dry and warm
And when you're in something, my sun don't shine at all
If yours won't shine mine won't,
I keep fighting you wars,
And I don't mind at all, because
I think im starting to fall, for you slowly
You know that I'd do it all, for you only
If loving you is this wrong
Then don't hold me back baby girl if i fall, I'll be ok
Ill be ok
You know that i will, ill be ok
Ill be ok, ill be ok
....
Left you in a pit alone girl,
Let me just say to you girl
You ain't in this all alone no,
You could be my mami i could be your papi
You don't have to be alone no more
You just ...., baby i will copy
You don't have to do nothing no more
You caught me so off guard, you called me out the dark
I found you broken heart, my heart was broken too
We'd build each other new, and I'm the guy for you
And I'll take care of you, because
I think im starting to fall, for you slowly
You know that I'd do it all, for you only
If loving you is this wrong
Then don't hold me back baby girl if i fall, I'll be ok
Ill be ok
You know that i will, ill be ok
Ill be ok
Baby you're my heaven
Angel sent from heaven
Didnt know you were sent from heaven x2

I think im starting to fall, for you slowly
You know that I'd do it all, for you only
If loving you is this wrong
Then don't hold me back baby girl if i fall, I'll be ok
Yeah ill be ok
Ill be ok
You know that i will, ill be ok
Yeah ill be ok
Ill be ok
Yeah ill be ok
