

Run In Circles

Face to Face

You are all the same
Go the way you came
Different names
But very little else has changed
Difficult to find
Easy to resign
Didn't seem to matter when I didn't mind
Out before it's in
Everybody wins
Give them what they want
And they are giving in
Nothing in return
Will we ever learn?
It's jumbled
And it's getting harder to discern
I run my mind circles
The vertigo
I've had enough
It feels as though nothing's going to change
