

Let Me In

Rick Springfield

I got this picture here inside my head
Of you one morning early, you still asleep in bed
The dog was snoring as I left to catch a plane
I saw your hair band laying there
And I took it with me I remember how you looked in love
Like angels touched your face
There's nothing you couldn't rise above
You found my hiding place
You turned me to the sun
When you pulled the thread I came undone
I heard you say Let me in
Why don't you let me in?
I begin
Where you let me in Now those memories all hold on to me
Like pages from a book I wasn't meant to see
A rock of ages fall to pieces in my hands
As the ring slips off your finger I
I want to catch it And tonight I'm lying next to you
I hear you breathing
There's so much to say, but words are few
Farewell, then, even though
I'm standing at the gate
I'm on the outside and I'm looking in
Can you hear me? Let me in
Why won't you let me in?
I touch your skin
Why won't you let me in? I caused the flood
But I still let you drown
You're in my blood
God knows I won't back down
Without your love
The world won't turn around Let me in
Why won't you let me in?
I begin
Where you let me in? Let me in
Why won't you let me in?
I won't give in
Until you let me in I sure hope this girl's in love
I sure hope this girl's in love

I sure hope this girl's in love
I sure hope this girl's in love And I believe in miracles
And I think this is spiritual
And I sure hope this girl's in love
I sure hope this girl's in love Why don't you let me in?
