

Cornerstone

Day of Fire

All other ground is sinking sand,
A doubting maze of desert land
Where darkness rules the heart of man
Till the sun shines light on him.

Lord of all,
Show you're strong.
On our knees we fall.

Be a cornerstone.
Be a cornerstone.
Be the rock higher than I.
Be my fortress wall.
Be a foundation for all,
My cornerstone.

This building's swaying in the wind;
The towers crumble down again.
This certainly will be the end
Of them not built on him.

Lord of all,
Show you're strong.
On our knees we fall.

Be a cornerstone.
Be a cornerstone.
Be the rock higher than I.
Be my fortress wall.
Be a foundation for all,
My cornerstone.

You,
You are the builder of my heart.
You held me together from the start.

Be a cornerstone.
Be a cornerstone.
Be the rock higher than I.
Be my fortress wall.

Be a foundation for all,
My cornerstone.

Be a cornerstone.
Be a cornerstone.
Be the rock higher than I.
Be my fortress wall.
Be a foundation for all,
My cornerstone.
