

Touch Me I'm Going To Scream Pt. 1

My Morning Jacket

Touch me, I'm going to scream if you don't
Inside I know you got the feeling that you won't, oh
I know it sounds confusing, but it makes a lot of sense
Throw a bone across the ocean, dig a hole under the fence

Touch me, I'm going to scream if you don't Inside I know we get the feeling that you won't
I can tell by the way you smile, I'm smiling, too
I see myself in you
I can tell by the sounds you make, when you are pleased
You see yourself to me

Touch me, I'm going to scream if you don't Inside I know we got the feeling that you won't
How many nights can a soul so full of life remain untouched?
How can a soul make the most of what is cold and what is here?

I need a human right by my side, untied, untied (Repeat 4X)
