Wires

Basia Bulat

Talk me out of my lies
And forgive myself for trying
Tell me to be brave tonight
And if we compare the timing
Take me out of the wild
Build up my frame of mind
And burn it 'til you're set on fire
Tell me when you cut the wires
Talk me out of this time
Open this heart of mine
Tell me when you cut the wires, now
Open this heart of mine
Hope for my sake you know
Study well before you hear it
Every beat and every note
You'll remember when you're near it
Take me out of the wild
Build up my frame of mind
And burn it 'til you're set on fire
Tell me when you cut the wires
Talk me out of this time
Open this heart of mine
Tell me did you cut the wires now?
Open this heart of mine
Take me out of the wild
Build up my frame of mind
And burn it 'til you're set on fire
Tell me when you cut the wires
Talk me out of this time
Anything to remind me
Help me if we never find it
Open this heart of mine
