

Bitter Radio Single

Hospital Ships

I'm not confused, I'm too weak to lose. So why are you surprised to see this look in my eye? You say this one, she'll want to run. And I'm the type to want too much. And now that you're done, I'll admit, I'm not strong and I won't let you forget that you run from the past, and I think you're upset that I'm not like everyone else. And I won't forget, they'll be some regret. But i don't care, We'll go on with our lives. don't give me no pity, cuz i dont have time, so screw this fuckin city. Tonight, it's alright and we've both taken sides. But i don't care, forgive and forget. And now you're upset, just dont say you're depressed that everyone, everyone can't just be friends.
