Valkyrie

Darkthrone

The world is a battlefield
We're in a dark shadow
You win or you'll be lost forever
Don't waste all your tears

Reality is so hollow

You gotta fight, be a survivorNo way I'll be the sacrifice

No matter what they bellow

I win not give in to their hunger

We all die alone

I find it hard to swallow

I need you here, keep me aliveIn heaven whenever I see you

I drop all my weapons

You tell me the meaning to life

How you drive me madINSANE, MY PAIN, I'm screaming on the inside

Awake to the justice

AGAIN, IN VAIN, I'm reaching for an answer

My tragedy just fades away

I dedicate it all to youNo one will last in disguise

Time flies like an arrow

Under your halo, I'll surrenderIn heaven whenever I feel you

I unload my handgun

You give me the will to go on

Do I drive you madINSANE, MY PAIN, I'm rushing to the outside

Now over the distance

I PRAY, IN RAIN, You're tearing off the cancer

My destiny will break away

I wanna make it up to youINSANE, MY PAIN, I'm screaming on the inside

Awake to the justice

AGAIN, IN VAIN, I'm reaching for an answer

My tragedy just fades away

I dedicate it all...INSANE, MY PAIN, I'm rushing to the outside

Now over the distance

I PRAY, IN RAIN, You're tearing off the cancer

My destiny will break away

Cuz I wanna make it up to you
