

Just a Game

Shanice

If you're not
In love with me
Why do you
Pretend to me
Could it be
It's all just a game
To you

I put all of my faith in you
Trying to be
What you wanted
Me to Still it seems
It's all just a game
To you

I try hard to understand it
I don't know
whether or not you planned it
Can't you see
That love is meant
For two

If you go
I won't regret
Won't spend time
Trying hard to forget
I'll just know
It's all just a game
To you

I try hard to understand it
I don't know
whether or not you planned it
Can't you see
That love is meant
For two
That love is meant
For two

That love is meant
For two
But it's all just a game
To you
