Cabin

Tenen

the cabin in the woods talks to the lost trees at the same time his dreams came to life without the bad read it came closer almost like how I motion past you thinkin if I told the truth then I would probably think backwards only thing keeping a separate is the issue of a monster that hides with his taken youth hoping that I'll conquer parents can't take what l came to do with the insight via bigger problems add that plus a good time minus critiquing what'll solve em once I take one step into the open door I'll be wondering why am I the only who won't implore I guess the cabin is my heart while my mind is a wild fire so fuck the water trying to take me out knowing that I'm getting higher across every mountain fortress sitting on my doorstep I'm breaking verses stealthier then when you more slept at same struggling to bring be more set . to be more set. damn
