

Dead Amen

Evans Blue

I will not be a victim trying not to offend
I will no longer listen
Holding me under
Consider me dead, amenIf you wanna feel something
More than sorry for yourself
Until you fix what's broken
May your words destroy your mouth
I don't wanna hear the reason
Why I can't go on
Your world is hopeless
I can understand the weak
But you pray for the silence
Then scream from the loneliness
Blame is not my intention
Hate is not who I am
Safe from all the pollution
Change is the burden if shame finds its way back inIf you wanna feel something
More than sorry for yourself
Until you fix what's broken
May your words destroy your mouth
I don't wanna hear the reason
Why I can't go on
Your world is hopeless
I can understand the weak
But you pray for the silence
Then scream from the lonelinessThe battles you choose
To lose have been chosen
By shadows and clues
The proof is a ghost
The battles you choose
To lose have been chosen
By shadows and clues
The proof is a ghostThe battles you choose
To lose have been chosen
By shadows and clues
The proof is a ghostThe battles you choose
To lose have been chosen
By shadows and clues
The proof is a ghostIf you wanna feel something

More than sorry for yourself
Until you fix what's broken
The proof is a ghost If you wanna feel something
More than sorry for yourself
Until you fix what's broken
May your words destroy your mouth
I don't wanna hear the reason
Why I can't go on
Your world is hopeless
I can understand the weak
But you pray for the silence
Then scream from the loneliness
