

Nothing More

Crossway

The cross calls me forgiven
And yet I see my sin
Should Jesus come and
Bear the nails
Of Calvary again
No all the work is finished
Redemption is complete
The debt of sin is cancelled
Now when Jesus looks, at me

Chorus

He sees nothing more to die for
Nothing to condemn
No need for atonement
No evidence of sin
Just an empty cross
An empty tomb
Heaven's open door
And a human heart
Touched by grace
In need of nothing more

When days of doubt and struggle
Come calling to condemn
And fear that 'I'm unfit'
Begins to harp you once again
Then the word of God arises
In my heart to speak the truth
The cry out "It is finished"
Means there's nothing more to do.

Chorus

He sees nothing more to die for
Nothing to condemn
No need for atonement
No evidence of sin
Just an empty cross
An empty tomb
Heaven's open door

And a human heart
Touched by grace
In need of nothing more

Nothing more to die for
Nothing to condemn
No need for atonement
No evidence of sin
Just an empty cross
An empty tomb
Heaven's open door
And a human heart
Touched by grace
In need of nothing more

And A human heart
Touched by grace
Nothing more
