Cakewalking

Pimmon

Yesterday we were always laughing
Always good for a laugh in passing
Stepping outside of the rules for askingMisery passes and so does crying
Just look around
When you feel like dying
Stepping outside of the rules
When tryingHopeless cases will drag you under
Fiery lovers will make you blunder
Tearing all the rules asunderTrying to cakewalk but it's too boring
Coming to life at four in the morning
You think you're alive
But then you're just yawning
