Wildfire turned out the will of fate
Brought us together
Lighting a dream that we thought would stay
And burn foreverBut love don't die when goodbye
Comes crashing through the door
It just hangs on after so longI still see your picture inside my mind
Like a flash of light when I close my eyesAnd just like that you're right back
Swept up in a rush of love inside my arms
Like you were never goneRunaway hearts can take time to heal
When love's unstoppable
Can you believe in everything you feel
It seems impossibleHard to let go when you're so close
To landing on the moon
It's too bad it didn't lastI still see your picture inside my mind
Like a flash of light when I close my eyesAnd just like that you're right back
Swept up in a rush of love inside my arms
Like you were never goneOh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oooh
Crashing through the door
Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oooh
Landing on the mo-o-oonI still see your picture inside my mind
Like a flash of light when I close my eyesAnd just like that you're right back
Swept up in a rush of love inside my arms
Like you were never gone
Like you were never gone
