

Surrender

Kasey Chambers

It's not that I don't care, I know it's here somewhere
But it's more than I can bare to take
I lie awake at night, I never win the fight
It's an addiction I can't shakeIt's overbearing me
And growing, flowing, showingI surrender forever
I fold, I played the losing card
I'm under, it's over
I give it up, it's all too hardIt's not that I'm unsure, I've heard it all before
But I can't help wanting more to keep
You just don't understand the way I really am
It's all I ever can beBut underneath it all
I'm breaking, waking, shakingI surrender forever
I fold, I played the losing card
I'm under, it's over
I give it up, it's all too hardAnd now I face it all
I'm falling, crawling, stallingI surrender forever
I fold, I played the losing card
I'm under, it's over
I give it up, it's all too hardI surrender forever
I fold, I played the losing card
I'm under, it's over
I give it up, it's all too hard
