I Hate Everybody (But You)

Slash's Snakepit

They filled me full of promises
Till it burned the roof of my mouth
I thought these jokers were my friends
Until they sold me outSpeed freaks at my door
It's all the same to me
Everybody's barkin' up
The same ol' treeI hate everybody but you
And it won't get better soon
You rub me all the right ways, baby
You'll probably screw me tooWhen you were told you're too old
To strip, to pay the bills
You moved in with your loser friends
So you could take designer pillsTake it how you want it
Scream that you were framed
'Cause you beat my sister's looks and all
But the sex is just the sameI hate everybody but you
And it won't get better soon
You rub me all the right ways, baby
You'll probably screw me tooGive it up
You still want more
I'll fight you to the end
You still want moreI put my heavy faith
Into a karma sucker's safe
Give it up
Give it up, yeahI hate everybody but you
Seems no matter what I do
I can't help feelin' paranoid
Of what's in it for youI hate everybody but you
But I got no one else to turn to
If I end up getting screwed
Well, I might as well get screwed by you
