Dido

Even on a day like this when you're crawling on the floor
Reaching for the phone to ring, anyone who knows you anymore
It's all right to make mistakes, you're only human
Inside everybody's hiding somethingStaring at the same four walls, have you tried to help yourself?
Rings around your eyes, they don't hide that you need to get some rest
It's all right to make mistakes, you're only human
Inside everybody's hiding something
Take time to catch your breath and choose your momentDon't slide
Don't slide, don't slide
Don't slide, slide, slideEven at a time like this when the morning seems so far
Think that pain belongs to you but it's happened to us all
It's all right to make mistakes, you're only human
Inside everybody's hiding something
Take time to catch your breath and choose your momentDon't slide
Don't slide, don't slide
Don't slide, slide, slideYou bought this on yourself and it's high time you left it there
Lie here and rest your head, dream of something else instead
Don't slide, don't slide
Don't slide, slide, slideDon't slide
Don't slide
Slide, slide
Don't slide
